

Transparency International Report on Bribery

Introduction

The Bribery Act 2016 describes bribery as the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of any item of value or benefit to influence the actions of a person entrusted with power.

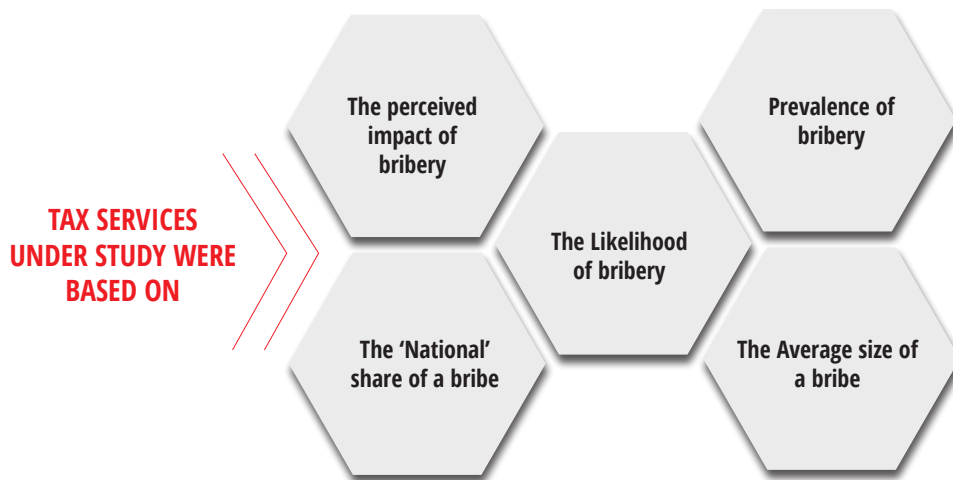

Date launched : The Kenya bribery index report was launched on 9th December 2020.

Number of participants : 2,422 individuals participated in the study.

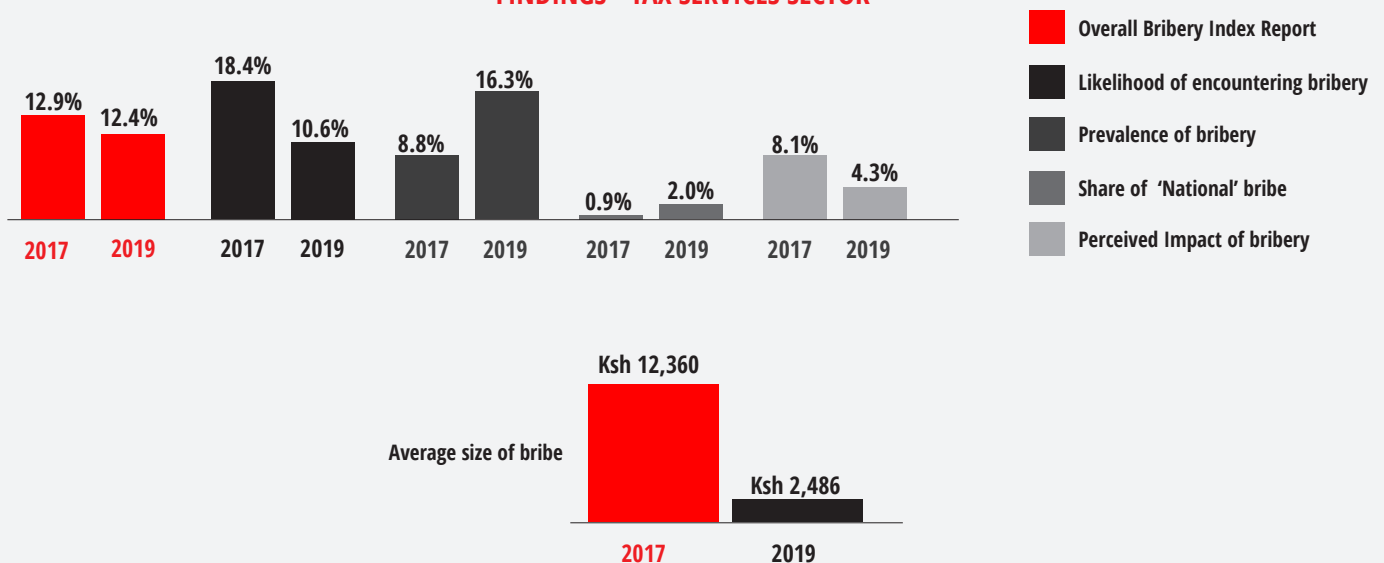

Number of counties: Participants were drawn from 16 counties distributed across all regions in Kenya.

Data Collection period: Data collection was done in November 2019.

Demographics of participants : Participants varied in age group, gender and financial income.

FINDINGS - TAX SERVICES SECTOR

Conclusion

Kenya Revenue Authority is committed to implementing various strategies that aim at mainstreaming ethics and integrity within its operations. The Authority has zero tolerance to corruption and calls upon all stakeholders to desist from engaging in any corrupt activity and report any form of corruption including bribery through the following corruption reporting channels.

KRA Channels for Reporting Corruption

Hotline: 0726 984 668

Email: corruptionreporting@kra.go.ke

Walk in to 26th floor, Times Tower
Nairobi or any other KRA office

Write to:

Commissioner General
Kenya Revenue Authority
P.O BOX 48240-00100, Nairobi

iwhistle.kra.go.ke